THANK YOU

December 22, 2019 will bring to a conclusion a 16 year ministry with TPTL Australia. It has been an amazing journey of amazing grace.

I want to thank the Churches for their support and welcome to the pulpit. I have never taken the pulpit for granted and have always believed it is a place of encouragement, pastoral care, challenge, Bible and gospel.

I also want to thank the many believers in the Lord who have given me hospitality and welcomed me into their home. Many beds and many meals and many blessings.

The International friends I have made and the ministry shared with them and the blessings of the pocket-sized gospel sowed into their nations cannot be measured. The part I played was very small but the dedication of the believers in persecuted and poverty-stricken countries is humbling and inspiring.

Thank you to the TPTL Board for their support and to my long-suffering family.

I am leaving TPTL Australia with no debts, and in a place that is expanding in Nigeria, South America, Pakistan, Thailand, Cambodia, Myanmar, Bangladesh and Nepal, and there will be new projects to the last.

And now for the next chapter of service. From TPTL Australia to Redeemer Ministries will be a natural flow on and there will be a good working relationship.

Thank you to the Lord.
