MYANMAR

David writes, the situation of Myanmar has become more difficult, but we continue to do God's ministry in the midst of so many challenges. I recently went to Kyat Chaung village for Bible teaching. Kyat Chaung village is a small village and most of them are Buddhists with only a few Christians there. In our Bible teaching some Buddhists came and they listened to the teaching and some have started to believe in Jesus. From Yangon it was a three hour journey by bus. We had to pass through three military check points and by God's grace there was no problem at any check point. From morning to late evening I taught the Word of God in the village. The people were so hungry and thirsty for God's Word. The Holy Spirit was working among us and we enjoyed being in the Word of God and fellowship. We prayed together and shared what the Lord had done in our lives. One woman called Tin Tin Khain shared her testimony of how two days before

I came to teach God's Word, she had read Psalms chapter one and 121 to her husband and three children before they had gone to bed. During the night a big elephant passed through the village and destroyed some houses and gardens. Most of the villagers were running away from the elephant, and some were hiding in trees. But Tin Tin Khain and family did not wake and the Lord gave them good sound sleep and protection from the elephant without any damage to their property. Jesus is so good to His children, He protects us from all kinds of dangerous things. Please pray for us and the need for more Gospels.

Handing out Gospels of John

THAILAND

Somchai writes, Greetings and love to you from all of us here in Thailand in Jesus’ precious name. Praise and thanks to God that Thailand has now opened up again and we can travel around to serve the Lord. We went around to visit our churches and to encourage our members. Saengtong and I also take them out to share their faith and to give out the Gospels of John and Christian booklets. The Lord has given us opportunities to conduct open air meetings in villages. The team plays music and I preach. We also have some volunteers who join us for giving out the Gospel of John every weekend in the markets, shopping centres and streets.

There were 17 people who accepted Christ as their Savior in June 2022 and two women are now attending our church at Angtong’s Potong District. There are also approximately 70-80 people who apply to receive our Bible correspondence courses on the book of John each week. Praise and glory to God that 130 prisoners, who are doing our correspondence course, started to worship at Klong Pai prison Nakhonrajsima province.

We recently went on a mission trip to Nakhon-Srithamaraj in South Thailand with some volunteers to give John’s gospel and Christian booklets where we had a good opportunity to share our faith to people.

Please pray for strength as we mark and send correspondence courses out to students and also for safety as we travel on our ministry trips around Thailand in the coming months.

Sharing Gospels of John

Children in House of Study (Rumah Belajar) in Gulo Village.

INDONESIA

Vera writes, In the picture above are some children from the House of Study (Rumah Belajar) in Gulo Village. We give the Gospel of John and tracts to them and we follow them up every week when they come here. These children are so excited to receive the Gospels of John and hear about Jesus. We thank the Lord that these little children want to receive the Gospel and understand who the Lord Jesus is. We also teach them how they can share Jesus with their friends and parents.

The picture below is of some students in high school. They are so excited and feel blessed to receive the Gospels. Some of their parents don't believe in God and some students feel hurt and hate for their parents as they have been treated badly. But after we took them through the correspondence course and read the Gospel they learnt about loving God and loving people, and they now want to forgive their parents and the people that have hurt them. Praise the Lord.

MY BIBLE AND I

I have a companion of infinite worth,
We travel together through this dreary earth;
From pilgrimage here to a home in the sky,
We are travelling together, my Bible and I.

I have a companion, a wonderful guide,
A solace and comfort whatever betide;
A friend never failing when others pass by
Oh, blessed communion, my Bible and I.

I have a companion, it's God's Holy Word,
Revealing from heaven the mind of my Lord;
My Rock and my Refuge, when danger is nigh,
We've blessings eternal, my Bible and I.

I have a companion, a heavenly light,
A pillar by day and a fire by night;
A lamp from the cradle until I shall die,
What blessed communion, my Bible and I.

I have a companion, a dear faithful friend,
A union of blessings that never shall end
Till Jesus returns for His saints from on high,
We'll travel together, my Bible and I.

O light on my journey, thou lamp to my feet,
Oh manna from heaven so precious and sweet;
For thee do I live and for thee would I die,
For ever and ever, my Bible and I.
