

20,000 GOSPELS FOR MALAWI

TPTL has just completed printing 20,000 Gospels for both Malawi and Mozambique, and the response has been overwhelming, as schools, prisons, churches, and communities alike have shown a strong hunger for receiving God's Word. In Balaka, one woman gratefully exclaimed, "At last we have something to read called the Bible!" Bishop Banda similarly notes that evangelists now go out with renewed confidence, knowing they can hand people their own copy of the Gospel.

Despite personal challenges, including caring for a father-in-law who recently suffered a stroke, Andrew, TPTL's representative for Malawi, remains unwavering in his service. He has partnered with evangelists from different denominations to distribute Gospels far and wide, including the Dzaleka Refugee Camp, where even the smallest gift of Scripture can bring immense hope. TPTL celebrates what God is doing through Andrew's faithfulness and our supporters' generosity. Every Gospel placed in someone's hands offers a chance to encounter Jesus. With traditional Bibles prohibitively expensive for many, these locally printed Gospels provide vital access to God's Word.

Please continue to pray for Andrew and his ministry and that God would bless every effort to bring His Word to those who need it most.

THAILAND UPDATE

Somchai writes,

“Dear Brothers & Sisters, Warm greetings and love to you from Thailand in the precious name of our Lord Jesus Christ. We thank Him for allowing us to serve and share His great love with people across our nation. By His grace, our family and ministry have been blessed, and we are grateful for your ongoing encouragement, support, and faithfulness in prayer.

We are delighted to share highlights from our Christmas Evangelistic Outreach Campaign, which ran from November 2024 to January 2025. Young people from local churches, students from Bible colleges in Bangkok and beyond, and overseas mission teams all joined us in spreading the Good News. We had prayed for 100 people to come to know Jesus, and though that number was not reached, we rejoice that 27 individuals accepted Christ as their Saviour during November and December. Our outreach took us to Eastern and Western Thailand, including the Cambodian and Myanmar border areas, where we encountered challenges but also witnessed God’s hand at work. We held a special discipleship training at Nounwan Church in Chanthaburi Province with a mission team from Singapore, and everywhere we went, people showed genuine interest in understanding the true meaning of Christmas.

Throughout this season, the Lord has guided and protected us step by step. We travelled to various villages and churches, preaching the Gospel while children received dedicated Bible teaching. This year will mark 50 years since the establishment of TPTL in Thailand, and we stand in awe of how God continues to open doors for ministry. Thank you to TPTLA and all who support this work. May God bless you richly and grant you wisdom, joy, peace, and strength throughout this year.”

MYANMAR - BIBLES AND BAPTISMS

David, our representative in Myanmar, has experienced both sorrow and joy in recent months. After Sunday worship in November, his mother went home to be with the Lord. She spent her final days with her family, and remained steadfast in faith until the end. Just a few weeks later, David's aunt also passed away. Despite these personal losses, David and his family feel comforted by the prayers and support they have received.

In the midst of grief, God's work continues to flourish. Recently, a team from Agape Church visited Tuu Myaung Village, where only one Christian resident lives. She became a believer eight years ago through evangelism in her village and kindly opened her home for an outreach event. Many villagers gathered, heard the Good News, received the Gospel of John, and learned about the meaning of Christmas.

Moreover, on a recent Sunday, seven people, each from a Buddhist background, took water baptism. After years of religious bondage, they heard the Gospel, studied Jesus' teachings, and repented of their old ways. They shared heartfelt testimonies in the service and participated in the Lord's Table for the first time. David taught them about baptism and communion according to Scripture, and they embraced their new life in Christ with great joy.

Please continue praying for David, his family, and the ministry in Myanmar. Pray for comfort in their losses and for continued boldness in sharing the life-changing message of Jesus among those who have yet to hear.

PRAYER POINTS

Pray for the continued distribution of the Gospel in Malawi and Mozambique, that more people would gain access to God's Word.

Pray for David in Myanmar, who is grieving the loss of his mother and aunt, and for the seven new believers from Buddhist backgrounds who recently took baptism, that they would remain steadfast in their faith.

Pray for the ministry efforts in Thailand led by Somchai and Saengtong, especially for the 27 people who accepted Christ during the Christmas Evangelistic Outreach, that they would continue to grow in the Lord.

Pray for all the workers and their families in each country where TPTL works, asking God to grant them health, protection and boldness in sharing the Gospel.

HERE I AM, SEND ME

Hark, the voice of Jesus crying,
 "Who will go and work today?
 Fields are white, and harvests
 waiting,
 who will bear the sheaves away?"
 Long and loud the Master calls us,
 rich reward He offers free;
 who will answer, gladly saying,
 "Here am I, send me, send me"?"

If you cannot cross the ocean,
 and the distant lands explore,
 you can find the lost around you,
 you can help them at your door;
 if you cannot give your thousands,
 you can give the widow's mite;
 what you truly give for Jesus
 will be precious in His sight.

If you cannot be the watchman
 standing high on Zion's wall,
 pointing out the path to heaven,
 off'ring life and peace to all,
 with your prayers and with your bounties
 you can do what heav'n demands;
 you can be like faithful Aaron,
 holding up the prophet's hands.

Let none hear you idly saying,
 "There is nothing I can do,"
 while the lost of earth are dying,
 and the Master calls for you;
 take the task He gives you gladly;
 let His work your pleasure be;
 answer quickly when He calls you,
 "Here am I, send me, send me."
