

THE GOSPEL REACHES STUDENTS AND VILLAGES ACROSS NIGERIA

God is moving in wonderful ways across Nigeria as the Gospel continues to reach schools, churches, and rural communities.

Recently, I visited a small group of disciples in Calabar to encourage and strengthen them in their walk with the Lord. We had a blessed time of fellowship, and I was able to provide them with copies of the Gospel of John to support their outreach work.

I also visited my home village church, where there is a growing hunger for God's Word. Many believers are eager to share the Gospel with others, especially young people caught up in traditional spiritual practices. The Lord is stirring hearts, and many are asking for copies of the Bible so they can grow in faith and understanding.

We also praise God for the faithful work of Chaplain Victor Effiong, who is sharing the Gospel in schools across several local government areas. Using the Gospel of John, he is preaching the message of salvation and seeing students come to Christ. Many have gratefully received their own copy of the Gospel, which they now use for daily devotion at school and at home.

A small group of disciples in Calabar receive Gospels of John for encouragement and outreach.

Recently, 10,000 new copies of the Gospel of John were printed in Nigeria, and they are now being distributed to meet the growing need in schools, villages, and training centres. These Gospels are making a powerful impact as more people encounter the message of Jesus Christ.

Please continue to pray for Brother Victor as he reaches more students and for the ongoing distribution of the Gospels across Nigeria.

I also thank you for your prayers and support. I have recently been recovering from typhoid but am regaining strength, and I thank God for His healing and provision.

Thank you for standing with us as we continue to bring the Word of God to the people of Nigeria.

SHARING THE GOSPEL ACROSS THAILAND

Warm greetings from Thailand in the precious name of our Saviour and Lord Jesus Christ.

We thank God for His continued grace and strength as we serve Him together. Saengtong has now recovered enough to join me again in ministry and has been joyfully teaching Sunday school for children. Together, we have been visiting churches in Kanchanaburi, Ang Thong, and Chanthaburi, encouraging believers and helping local congregations share the Gospel of John in their communities.

We are grateful for the faithful volunteers who serve alongside us. Pastor Sarayut and his wife Chanapa in Kanchanaburi regularly share their faith and distribute Gospels at local markets, while Pastor Kiti in Nonthaburi Province continues to travel from village to village on his motorcycle, faithfully sharing the Word of God.

In Suphanburi's Sriprachan District, we partnered with members of Sriprachan Church to visit nearby villages, where 19 people publicly accepted Christ as their personal Saviour. Praise God for these new believers and for the power of His Word to change lives.

We continue to oversee our Bible correspondence courses and are encouraged by the number of students growing in their faith through these studies.

Please pray for our outreach ministry, for safety as we travel during the rainy season, and for good health and strength to keep serving the Lord. We are deeply grateful for your prayers, love, and support as we continue to share the Gospel throughout Thailand.

LIVES TRANSFORMED IN MYANMAR

We thank God for His continued grace as the work of discipleship and evangelism continues in Myanmar. Our focus remains on teaching God's Word and sharing the Gospel through the distribution of booklets and Gospels provided by TPTL. These resources have been a vital part of our outreach and training.

Recently, we visited a village called Kyat Chaung, a community that has become a regular part of our ministry. We travel there several times a year, and it is always encouraging to see new people joining the training sessions. The journey takes about two hours by bus and another thirty minutes by motorcycle, but it is always worth it to see God at work.

During our most recent visit, we spent two days teaching from the Scriptures. Among those attending was a woman named Daw San Myint, who comes from a Buddhist background. Although she had heard about Jesus before, it was during this visit that she came to fully understand the Gospel.

After hearing the Word, she shared with us that she had accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Saviour and wanted to be baptised. We took time to explain the meaning and importance of baptism according to the Scriptures, and with great joy, we baptised her that same day. It was a wonderful and moving moment, and we all rejoiced together in the Lord's goodness.

We are deeply thankful for the ministry of TPTL and for the Gospel booklets and resources that continue to support our evangelism and discipleship work. These materials are making a lasting impact in people's lives, and we are grateful for your ongoing partnership and prayers.

PRAYER POINTS

Pray for Somchai and Saengtong in Thailand, that God will continue to strengthen them in health and spirit as they share the Gospel, lead others in ministry, and prepare for their Christmas outreaches.

Pray for David and the growing church in Myanmar, that new believers like Daw San Myint will remain strong in faith and that more hearts will be open to the message of salvation.

Pray for Udemé and the ministry in Nigeria, for continued opportunities to reach schools and villages with the Gospel, and for God's protection and provision for all involved in this work.

NEXT TIME IT WILL BE DIFFERENT

The First Time Jesus Came
He came veiled in the form of a child.

A star marked His arrival.
Wise men brought Him gifts.
There was no room for Him.
Only a few attended His arrival.
The Next Time Jesus Comes
He will be recognised by all.
Heaven will be lit by His glory.
He will bring rewards for His own.

The world won't be able to contain His glory.
Every eye shall see Him.
He will come as Sovereign King and Lord of all.

John F. MacArthur Jr.

JESUS

"He will be a joy and delight to you, and many will rejoice because of His birth"
